

This proposed rule is not needed and would put undue burden on retailers, possibly causing retailers to stop selling said equipment, thereby harming the Amateur Radio Service